OPERA HOUSE GALLOWS. ERECTED FOR NEGRO

Who Incited a Riot Among His Race—Relatives Occupy the Boxes.

Jackson, Ga., Dec. 18.—The first hanging that ever took place in an opera house was conducted here at noon to-day when Wm. Turner, a negro preacher, was executed for having incited a race riot in which Jesse Singly, a prominent planter, was shot to death.

The Sheriff had planned to hang the negro in the jail yard, but he feared the crowd would break in. The weather was also very disagreeable. So he decided to hang the negro in Kluk's Opera House, so that the relatives of the murdered man, who wished to see the hanging, would not have to stand in the rain. This morning the gallows was erected on the stage of the opera house, and at noon the negro was marched to the scene. Before the trap was sprung the negro confessed that he incited the riot, and that he also fired the shot which killed Singly. He warned the members of his race to let whiskey alone and to be addressed by the whites.

In the boxes and front seats of the opera house were many relatives and friends of the murdered man. Besides these there were not many other persons present, as the Sheriff refused to issue many tickets. There was a great crowd, however, of people outside the opera house, and guards had to be stationed to keep them from breaking in.

Turner was influential with his race, and it is said incited the negroes to many acts of aggression against the whites. Three of his sons are in jail in Atlanta awaiting trial for the same crime for which their father was hanged. They were removed to Atlanta, as they would have been lynched if kept here.

Keown—Foster.

Announcement is made of the approaching marriage of Mr. J. Ney Foster, junior editor and one of the proprietors of the Hartford Republican, and Miss Anna Eliza Keown, daughter of ex-Sheriff Cal P. Keown and wife, which will occur at the home of the bride here, Tuesday, December 26, at 1:30 p. m. The wedding will be a quiet one, only a few friends and the immediate relatives of the connubial couple being invited. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Chester Stevens, of Louisville.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Foster will leave for a short trip to Louisville and Cincinnati, returning to Hartford via Owensboro, where they will visit the groom's mother, arriving here the latter part of the week and going at once to housekeeping.

Mrs. Foster will continue her work as teacher of the Primary grade of Hartford College.

They are a popular young couple and come of two of Hartford's oldest and most respected families. The Herald joins their many friends in wishing them much happiness.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Joe Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Pirtle, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hocker, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Balm, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Sinnett, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Mr. Likens to Land.

Saturday's Frankfort News-Journal says: Mr. Bosworth, while in Frankfort yesterday, said that G. B. Likens, of Ohio county, will be the Assistant Auditor. This is one of the most responsible positions in the Auditor's office. Mr. Likens is a competent man, however, and will hold down the place satisfactorily. Henry Ware, of Frankfort, will be assistant to Mr. Likens in charge of the claim department, and will be the confidential man to Mr. Bosworth, looking after much of the correspondence of the office. Mr. Ware has had many years experience in the Auditor's office and has the work of all the departments at his finger's tips. Mr. Bosworth says he can not say who will be Insurance Commissioner, as he does not know who he will appoint, yet. He says it is easier for him to say who he will not appoint than for him to say who he will appoint.

TOBACCO POOLERS ARE REQUIRED TO REGISTER

Facilitates Handling of the Weed
Here and Saves Much Time.

We wish to call the attention of the farmers to their tobacco deliveries. BE CAREFUL AND DON'T LET YOUR TOBACCO INJURE IN BULK. We urge every farmer who delivers his tobacco to the Gallaher Limited, to call and register. He can do this by 'phone. While it may be a little inconvenient to some to get to a 'phone, yet it may save you several dollars expense. When you call, either by 'phone or otherwise, your name will be placed on the book for a certain day, and if you are on hand you will be unloaded on that day, unless there is some unavoidable delay which may occur, and in such case you will be first on the next day, but if you fail to come on the day on which you are registered, then you will call and register. We ask you this in order that we may avoid these gluts which so often occur, and on the other hand, to save the farmer an expense unnecessary. Try to bring your tobacco in good delivering order. MAN WHO SHOT HIMSELF THOUGHT TO BE DYING

The Owensboro Messenger of Sunday says:

The condition of Frank Graham, who, according to the statement of his wife, attempted to commit suicide Friday evening about 9 o'clock, remains practically unchanged, and the physicians who are attending him at the city hospital, hold out but little hope for his recovery.

Graham, as was stated, had been in poor health and was very despondent over his condition. It is said that he brooded over his financial affairs and the fact that he had but little money for the Christmas season and that in a moment of wild desperation he turned his revolver against himself and fired the shot through his body.

The sufferer was apparently resting some easier last night, but it was not thought that the change was of a permanent nature and it is not believed that he will recover.

PLEDGES OF THE PARTY PLATFORM

To Be Rigidly Kept, Says Gov. McCreary

IN HIS INAUGURAL ADDRESS Which Rings With Patriotic Spirit and Fealty to the People.

A GEM OF WORDS AND LOGIC

In his inaugural address at Frankfort on Tuesday of last week, Governor McCreary said:

"Called a second time to the office of Governor of Kentucky by the suffrages of a generous and patriotic people, I, with sincerest pleasure, express my profound gratitude to the people of my native State for the honor conferred upon me.

"In assuming this important trust, I am deeply sensible of its great responsibility, as well as its honor, and I bring to it a conscientious desire and determination to discharge its duties faithfully, fearlessly and impartially.

"I shall be Governor not of any particular class or section, but of all the people of our great Commonwealth, and I will have no individual schemes to advance and no personal aspirations to promote. I will endeavor in every proper way to uphold and advance all that will bring prosperity to the State and happiness to its people.

"Relying upon the support of free, brave and patriotic Kentuckians, and entreating the aid and protection of 'The Lord of Hosts, great in councils and mighty in works,' I pledge whatever ability or energy I possess to the faithful support and maintenance of the Constitution and the laws.

"My earnest effort shall be to uphold and maintain policies that will promote alike the interests of all the people. The interests of the farmer and the laborer, the interests of the manufacturer and the business man, and the interests of all classes alike should be fostered and encouraged.

"The platform on which the Democratic party won a great victory at the last election places important responsibility on our party, and the duty of complying fully with the platform pledges not only rests on every Democrat elected on the State ticket, but also upon every Democrat of the General Assembly, and all Democrats are interested in a faithful compliance with the platform, and the incoming administration and the General Assembly should feel empowered and compelled to carry out the pledges of the platform.

"I am in favor of complying with every declaration of the Democratic platform, adopted at the last State convention, and to those who are charged with the sovereign functions of legislation, I look with confidence and satisfaction for prompt co-operation in the enactment of laws required by the platform, which are as important and necessary as were ever considered by the members of any General Assembly. Kentucky is fortunate in having worthy, intelligent and well-equipped Senators and Representatives composing the next General Assembly, and I believe they will make a record which will be regarded by all as satisfactory and honorable.

"Among the most important measures endorsed by the Democratic platform and supported by the candidates for office at the last election, and to which both State officers and members of the General Assembly are pledged, are the following, which, at the present time, I can not discuss at length:

"More efficient and more practical common school system, and educational institutions of the State wisely and economically administered, and woman's suffrage in school elections.

"Wise and conservative laws which will encourage roads and bridge building, and reasonable State aid where each county first does its part.

"Revision of the tax system by submission to a vote of the people whether or not they desire to adopt an amendment to our State Constitution broadening the powers of the General Assembly, so that it may classify property for the purpose of taxation.

"Change in the present method of selecting the Prison Commissioners of the State, and the removal of all politics from the management of our penal institutions.

"Creation of a department of banking, providing for competent inspection of all our State financial institutions.

"Election of United States Senators by the direct vote of the people.

"Organization and co-operation among farmers, and organization and co-operation among all laboring men.

"Such laws as will, under appropriate penalties, destroy all corrupt lobbying.

"Extension of the present local option law.

"Direct primary election law.

"Explicit and effective corrupt practice law.

"The finances of the State shall suffer no detriment which it may be possible for me as Governor to prevent.

"In all public expenditures, rigid economy shall be preserved, and the members of the General Assembly, in making appropriations, should have due regard all the time to the available money in the Treasury.

"It is the certainty more that the severity of punishment that prevents crime. In our State a jury rarely if ever convicts a person of crime who is innocent. Criminals who have had a fair trial according to law and have been convicted, should not rely on executive clemency, and the pardoning power au-

WELL KNOWN MINISTER

Restored to Health by Vinol

Rev. D. Schneider, who is a well known minister in Rice Lake, Wis., writes:

"I had a very severe stomach trouble last year from which I was kept in bed three months. I had engaged the services of a doctor, but to no avail. I then read of Vinol and determined to try a bottle. Before it was used up I was out of bed, and four bottles made me a well man. Vinol is a splendid medicine, and I can gladly recommend it."

Prominent men from all over the country do not hesitate to endorse this wonderful tonic.

For twelve years Vinol has been sold on the "money back" plan, and every year strengthens its popularity and proves by continued tests that it will do what we claim for it. Z. Wilbur Mitchell, Beaver Dam, Ky. Hartford Drug Co., Hartford, Ky.

thorized by the Constitution should not be sought before conviction.

"My countrymen, we have one republic, with one Constitution, and one destiny.

"Kentucky is a component part of the great federal Union, one State in a confederation of States. That which affects liberty in one State will in time be beneficial to other States. That general law which is oppressive or injurious in one State will be oppressive or injurious in other States, therefore our State shares its part of the honor or dishonor, the blessings or burdens of the Republic, and I desire our Commonwealth to be in full accord and harmony with her sister States in supporting the Constitution, and in striving to advance the best interests of the whole country, and in endeavoring to add to the grandeur and glory of a wonderful destiny.

"On this great occasion my heart is full of admiration and hope for my country, and love and gratitude to the people of my native State, who have elected me twice by the largest majorities given in the last fifty years for Governor of the State of Kentucky.

"I shall, by fidelity to duty, and obedience to the Constitution and the laws, strive to merit the confidence reposed in me by the electors of the State of Kentucky.

"I succeed an honorable and patriotic statesman, who, according to his views, has been a faithful and an efficient Governor, and I wish him during his retirement to private life, success and happiness.

"Earnestly invoking the blessings of Almighty God on our State and on our people, I appeal to my fellow citizens, regardless of their political sentiments, to co-operate with me in conducting an honest, impartial and economical administration, which will uphold justice, freedom, education, progress and righteousness, and advance the interests and maintain the integrity of the Commonwealth of Kentucky."

Lightning Kills Few.

In 1906 lightning killed only 169 people in this whole country. One's chances of death by lightning are less than two in a million. The chance of death from liver, kidney or stomach trouble is vastly greater, but not if Electric Bitters be used, as Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Ia., proved. Four doctors gave him up after eight months of suffering from virulent liver trouble and yellow jaundice. He was then completely cured by Electric Bitters. They're the best stomach, liver, nerve and kidney remedy and blood purifier on earth. Only 50c at James H. Williams. m

An Alarm at Night

That strikes terror to the entire household is the loud, hoarse and metallic cough of croup. No mistaking it, and fortunate then the lucky parents who keep Foley's Honey and Tar Compound on hand. H. W. Casselman, Canton, N. Y., says: "It is worth its weight in gold. Our little children are troubled with croup and hoarseness, and all we give them is Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. I always have a bottle of it in the house." For sale by all dealers. m

ROUGH SCRAMBLE OF MEN FOR CHANCE AT A JOB

Superior, Wis., Dec. 8.—Two hundred men to-day fought in Tower avenue for a chance to work. There were just four jobs open at the docks. Three tickets had been dealt out when the demand for the remaining one became so clamorous that the agent in charge threw the fourth above the men's heads. As it fell, the men in the crowd rushed for it, fighting desperately to get the right to work.

BLOCKADED.

Every Household in Hartford Should Know How to Resist It.

The back may ache because the kidneys are blockaded. Help the kidneys with their work.

The back will ache no more.

Lots of proof that Doan's Kidney Pills do this.

It's the best proof, for it comes from this vicinity.

C. W. Bethel, 1205 Eleventh St., Owensboro, Ky., says: "I had heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and as I was having lameness across my kidneys, I procured a box and took them carefully as directed. The result was that my trouble disappeared. A relative also suffered from an attack of lumbago that made every movement painful and his kidneys were disordered. I insisted upon his taking Doan's Kidney Pills and it was wonderful how quickly they disposed of all the pain and lameness. In a few days he was at work and the kidney difficulty had disappeared."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The last fly of summer is still roaming on the window pane.

Chances are that in one respect voting will remain about the same after the ladies get used to the ballot. She will probably vote just as her mother did.

One inauguration just over and another one almost at hand—next March a year, when a Democratic President will be inaugurated.
Think the announcement a little premature? Just wait and see!

After an interim of thirty-six years, Hon. James B. McCreary is again in the Governor's chair at Frankfort, as chipper, amiable and able as if nothing had occurred in the meantime—nothing only a busy life full of honors.

The Owensboro Inquirer very truly says that "Not all the McNam-aras are in the labor unions. There are some of them in 'big business.'" But the chances are that the latter will never be hunted down by Detective Burns.

Here looks like easy Christmas money for some one. Mr. Charles W. Morse, of Brookline, Mass., offers a prize of $1,000 to anybody who will convince him that the world is round. Diagrams not considered. He just wants somebody to show him why he can't run to the edge and jump off.

Teddy has been real good lately, really hasn't done anything to get himself into print, and the chances now are that Santa Claus is going to reward him with a sure enough promise of a Presidential nomination, all done up nicely in political tissue.

It would seem that no advice or urging were necessary to inspire the coming Kentucky Legislature—Democratic in both Houses—to a strict fulfillment of party pledges as embodied in the last Democratic State platform. In fact, both platforms of the leading parties contained excellent features, promising much needed legislation, which no legislator can afford to ignore. The people are expecting much of this Legislature in the way of duty and performance. Let them not be disappointed.

If any one—and we hardly think it—ever had any doubt of Gov. Mc-Creary's firm allegiance to the Democratic platform of the last campaign and his intention to do his utmost to see that every pledge contained therein is fulfilled, such fears will be dispelled by reading his inaugural address, contained on the third page of The Herald to-day.
This short message is a gem of logic and loyalty to party spirit. It is full of "meat" and sound doctrine and leaves no legislator with any excuse for not doing his duty when the General Assembly convenes.

There are many poor homes throughout the land where Santa Claus is a stranger. To the little children of these homes the noted patron saint is more a fable than with other children, as they never see any tangible evidences of his visits. They do not know what he is like in any way. To them a pair of shoes, stockings, gloves, or any of the much needed wearing apparel, would mean much; would mean at least that they are not forgotten —the most bitter thought that can come to anybody at this glad season. Do you ever play Santa Claus to a poor neighbor?

Next Monday the Christians of the whole world celebrate the natal day of Him who, although poor and possessing not a coin of His own, yet became immortalized as the Giver of all good gifts. He gave no gifts in a material sense; He built no fine edifice nor founded a city to bear His family name, yet He gave to the world the most priceless Gift of all the universe—Himself—through Whose Being comes eternal life, a boon beyond the estimation of the human mind. It is good for us to give each other presents at this season, in memory of the great Giver, but above and through it all should shine the rays of the Bethlehem star of hope and love and fellow feeling—"Good will towards all men."

CONCLUSION:

Come to see us during this Sale. We have tried to arrange the date to suit your convenience, making the Sale in December instead of January, which is our custom. But we realize that by January the most of the people are through with their winter buying, and are thus not benefited by the Sale. So we have begun our Sale in December and by so doing place you in a position to do your holiday trading and at the same time be benefited by the liberal discount which the Sale offers. Everybody knows our stock. It is as good and complete as you will find in the Green River section, embracing every article of wearing apparel and some of which you will be sure to buy before the winter closes. If you are a shrewd buyer, don't pass our door. Come in and complete your winter buying for yourself and family. We shall expect you.

Thanking you for your liberal patronage in 1911 and hoping that 1912 may be brighter and more prosperous for you, and again extending to you a pressing invitation to be with us during the Sale, we remain,

I have put on display the largest, highest grade, most up-to-date Holiday line carried in any town no larger than Hartford in this whole country. I bought my holiday stock 30 days earlier than usual this year, and shall always buy earlier hereafter, as I avoided getting a large part of my bill duplicated for unsaleable goods. Come now while my stock is complete, and have your presents laid back—they will not damage any. A few things I carry are: A large assortment of Ladies' and Gents' Watches, Chains, Fobs, Chatelaine Pins, Brooches, Cuff Pins, Belt Pins, Hat Pins, Scarf Pins, Emblem Pins, Rings, Plain and Set Locket Charms, Tie Clasps, Cuff Buttons—a full line; Bracelets, Backcombs, Souvenir Spoons, engraved or plain; a full line of Flat and Hollow Silver and Silver Plated Ware the "1847" Brand; Cut Glass, Silver and Plated Toilet and Manicure Sets, all prices; Jewel Cases, Cloth and Hat Brushes, Single Toilet Articles, and a nice line of Imported Hand Painted China, or anything kept in a modern Jewelry Store, at prices as low or lower, than your catalogue or other jewelers, consisting of the most important part, "quality." So get other's prices and come and see what you can do at home. You are not obligated to buy. I am especially anxious for everyone in Hartford and Ohio county, if possible, to come in and see what you have in the way of a jewelry store. Some of you have not been in; come this time.

go from there to Safford, Ariz., where he will visit his son, Roy Miller. He will be absent all winter.

The Herald was put to press before the termination of the entertainment last night at Dr. Bean's Opera House by Ned oWodman, the famous humorist and cartoonist. Many tickets were sold, however, which assured a large audience. The fame of the man had preceded him, and there can be no doubt that his effort here was characteristic of the class of entertainment which as made him famous throughout the land.

TOBACCO TRUST IS IN ITS GLORY

Now, Since It Was Recently "Dissolved."

DISSOLUTION MEANT LITTLE

To Its Monopoly, Says Stanley—Economy Stunt of Republicans.

WHY THIS SUDDEN GOODNESS?

(Special to The Herald.)
Washington, Dec. 14.—The only definite thing in President Taft's message to Congress is his attempt to prove that the farcical Tobacco Trust decision practically solves the trust problem. He complacently assumes that this decision is certain at some indefinite period to restore competition, and soften the evils of illegal monopoly, if it does not indeed completely eradicate them.

Once again, therefore, the President is found advocating in a message to Congress a cause that is not popular with the people, for the merest tyro in the study of trusts recognizes the Tobacco Trust "dissolution" as a victory for that monopoly. That even Wall street so considers it, is evidenced by the fact that the securities of the Tobacco Trust are higher after the "dissolution" than before.

"The punishment" inflicted upon the American Tobacco Company for being in existence in violation of the law," declares Chairman Stanley, of the Steel Investigation Committee, "is worth hundreds of millions of dollars to that concern. There is not a trust in the United States or in the world which would not give millions to be 'dissolved' as it has been dissolved."

And the President devotes his official message to Congress to an attempt to make it appear that this tobacco trust decision is a great victory for the independent tobacco men and the people.

Estimates of the Treasury Department for running the Government during the next fiscal year, which have just been submitted to Congress, contemplate a saving of $21,283,921.43, as compared with the amount appropriated for the fiscal year 1911-1912.

This is in contrast to past Republican performances. Mark, for instance, the following comparative figures which best tell the story of Republican extravagance:

Annual Appropriations.
1898 .. $ 340,000,000
1900 .. 600,000,000
1909 .. 1,103,387,508

Per Capita Cost of Running Government.
1890 .. $ 6.00
1900 .. 8.00
1909 .. 12.40

Why have the Republicans suddenly developed symptoms of economy, this particular year reducing their estimates after having regularly increased their expenditures every year for sixteen years?

The answer is that the Republican department heads knew extravagant estimates could not pass the scrutiny of the Democratic House.

Notwithstanding their admission that they will be able to get along for twenty-one millions less, there has been no marked complaint from the Republican officials that they will be stinted or hampered in their work. The Democratic leaders made it plain at the start that the necessary expenses of the Government were to be met as usual, but that all unnecessary items would have to be cut out.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Wants a Comparison.
Editor R. R. Perry, of the Winchester News, and Sun-Sentinel, in telling why he is a Republican, observes that "the Democratic Representatives from Kentucky are not of a caliber to inspire confidence, and we assume that they are a fair sample of those from other States." We would like to have Brother Perry's honest, candid opinion of how such men as Ollie James, Swager Sherley, Henry Helm or any of the other Democratic Congressmen, compare with "promissory" John Langley or Caleb Powers, the Republican members from Kentucky.—[Stanford Interior Journal.]

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. ONLY KENTUCKY TOWN THAT BARS NEGRO RACE

Island Station, McLean county, is said to be the only Western Kentucky town which bars negroes and not a single representative of the Ethiopian race is to be found there. Occasionally a colored man, beating his way on a freight train, stops off for a few minutes, not knowing of the antipathy. He soon "beats it." Even the colored porters on the passenger trains are shy about getting off at Island and when they do, it is only for a moment. Island is a town of 1,000 population and is located on the Louisville and Nashville railroad, in McLean county.

The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger from pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by all dealers.

BIG DAMAGES WERE AWARDED THE PLAINTIFF

The largest damages ever given a plaintiff in a damage suit in Union county was returned by the jury in the case of Sallie P. Kuykendall, administratrix of the late W. M. Kuykendall, who was killed by a "live wire" while wiring a new house in Sturgis last March. The action was against the West Kentucky Coal Company and the Sturgis Electric Light Company. The verdict was for $15,000 and was returned after one of the most bitterly fought suits in the history of the county. The next largest verdict ever received by a plaintiff was for $8,200.

PELLAGRA IN KENTUCKY BECOMING WIDESPREAD

Says Frankfort Physician—At Present Principally Confined to Asylums.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 9.—Pellagra, which has made its appearance at the State charitable institutions, will spread widely during the next year, according to a Frankfort physician, who has made a study of the disease. He predicts that at the Lexington asylum, within six months, there will be from 125 to 175 cases. He also predicts that the disease will be a serious matter to the people of the whole State during the next few years.

So far as is known, according to this physician, who asked that his name not be used, there is no record of a single case of pellagra having been cured, while death has resulted in a large number of cases. He says that there is so little known of the disease that no cure has yet been discovered and the disease simply runs its course which ends in certain death after a short period.

"In the asylum at Lexington I believe that there will be between 125 and 175 cases of pellagra by the middle of the summer," said the physician. "I think the people have not begun to realize the gravity of the situation."

Two cases of pellagra have been found during the last year and a half at the Institute for the Feeble-Minded at Frankfort, and in each instance death resulted. The disease, in each instance, was contracted by the patient before his admission to the institution. There are now no cases of the disease in Frankfort, but in Lexington and Lakeland and Hopkinsville there are many.

When your feet are wet and cold, and your body chilled through and through from exposure, take a big dose of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, bathe your feet in hot water before going to bed, and you are almost certain to ward off a severe cold. For sale by all dealers. m

CHRISTMAS MONEY FOR THE BOY ON THE FARM

Few people know the magnitude of the fur business in America. This is the time of the year when the boy on the farm not only gets a great deal of pleasure out of trapping and hunting, but quite a bit of pocket money besides.

Many people are under the impression that the fur-bearing animals of America are being exterminated, but the supply seems inexhaustible, and with the present game laws going into effect in every State, America bids fair to be one of the largest sources from which the world will draw its supply of fur.

Louisville, Kentucky, is considered one of the largest primary fur markets of the West and Middle South. There are two firms in Louisville who are considered among the big factors in the raw fur trade of America. The firm of M. Sabel & Sons, advertisers in The Herald, is one of the oldest houses in the trade. This house was established in 1856. This firm is perhaps the only house in America that issues a weekly price list, thereby keeping shippers thoroughly posted on every change in the market.

"Best on Earth"
This is the verdict of R. J. Howell, Tracy, O., who bought Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for his wife. "Her case was the worst I have ever seen, and looked like a sure case of consumption. Her lungs were sore and she coughed almost incessantly and her voice was hoarse and weak. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound brought relief at once and less than three bottles effected a complete cure." Without opiates or harmful drugs of any kind, Foley's Honey and Tar Compound stops coughs and cures colds. Do not accept any substitute. For sale by all dealers. m

HEART TAKEN OUT, SEWED UP AND THEN PUT BACK
Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 9.—Wesley Runnel, a negro, who was stabbed to the heart in a fight to-night, was placed on the operating table at the City Hospital, his heart taken out and the wound sewed up. Five stitches were taken.

Runnel was on the table a half hour, and while the operation went on, the valves of the organ could plainly be seen working. The stitches are in the right ventricle, which is the lower chamber of the heart on the right side. They were made with catgut, which will be absorbed as the wound heals.

Though recovery after such an operation is extremely rare, and the chances that the patient will live so slight that it could hardly call for fighting odds, an authority at the hospital stated his belief that Runnel will probably recover.

Runnel was able to talk this evening and told the story of his stabbing. Only five cases for all time are on record in which the patient lived after having stitches taken in his heart, according to a local authority.

KENTUCKY NEWS NOTES.

Henry Powell's back was broken in a coal mine at Morganfield, Ky., when he was caught between two cars.

Senator Greenwood A. Taylor, a well known lawyer and member of the Kentucky Legislature, died at his home at Hodgenville Friday, after an illness of three weeks.

Creditors of D. C. Miller, Jr., a merchant of Campton, have filed a suit in bankruptcy against him in the United States Court at Maysville. It is alleged that his indebtedness is about $15,000 and his assets about $5,000.

A keg of powder exploded in a small mine at Williamsburg owned by E. S. Moss, and three miners, Andy Smith, Albert Smith and Blain Stinson, were all seriously if not fatally burned. The cause of the explosion is not known.

While standing before an open grate at her home in Bath county, the clothing of Agnes Kincaid, 5 years old, caught fire and was burned from her body. The flames were smothered out by the child's mother. The child is badly burned and may die.

Pearl, aged thirteen years, daughter of James Anderson, formerly of Louisville, died at Richmond of ptomaine poisoning, after one day's illness. Another child of the family is dangerously ill from the same cause. The children ate some canned blackberries. The father is a plumber.

Fourteen arrests were made in one day at Bowling Green, thirteen for drunkenness and disorderly conduct and one for malicious shooting and wounding. After a lapse of nearly three years, saloons were opened there Wednesday, six opening for business, while six more were given a license, but did not open their doors.

State Railroad Commissioner W. F. Klair bought from Mrs. W. S. Barnes the old Clarendon Hotel building in Lexington, which adjoins the Leland, and which has been used under lease as a part of that hotel. It is said that the building purchased will soon be remodeled, so as to make the Leland Hotel one of the most attractive in Central Kentucky.

After carrying the rural route mail in Hopkins county for seven years over the roughest roads in the county, Mrs. W. A. Smith refused to reapply for the place when it expired Thursday. She intends to make her home in Arkansas with her husband, whom she recently married. During the seven years she missed but four days exclusive of the regular vacations.

James Proffit and Isaac Miller, Deputy Sheriffs, shot and killed Bill Helton at Teges, in Clay county. Proffit and Miller had warrants for Helton and when they attempted to arrest him, he opened fire on them with a revolver. The sheriffs returned the fire and Helton was killed, three bullets taking effect. Helton, it was alleged, was moonshining and peddling whiskey.

The State Board of Control of Charitable Institutions has received a request from Dr. Wright, head of the New York Post-Graduate Medical College and Hospital, that several patients afflicted with pellagra in the asylums of Kentucky be sent to New York for observation, in the hope that the true cause of the malady and some remedy for stamping it out can be discovered.

The model school which is to be established in Lexington will be called the Madeline Breckenridge school. The announcement was a surprise for Mrs. Desha Breckenridge, who was thus honored, and was made at the laying of the cornerstone of the building for the new school Wednesday by Judge Henry S. Barker, president of State University, who made the principal address of the occasion.

E. W. Thornberry, John D. Hanby and J. M. Hanby, of Henderson, have sued the Seabee Coal and Mining Company and John B. Ramsey for $10,500 commissions alleged to be due for the sale of the coal shaft appurtenances and mining rights to W. H. Beattie and others for $52,500. They allege that the sale was brought through them and that the deal was negotiated with John B. Ramsey, president of the company.

After hearing the evidence in examining court, Justice Clay dismissed the warrants against Dawse Terrell, John Bettus and Frank Crouch, of Bourbon county, and Joseph John and Hord Scott, three sons of W. H. Scott, of Nicholas county, all prominent farmers, against whom

The Rayo Lamp

It Never Flickers

The long winter evenings give a woman a splendid chance for sewing or embroidery; but her eyes suffer from the strain unless she has a good light.

The Rayo is the best lamp made.

It gives a strong, diffused light that is remarkably easy to the eyes. There is no glare to it; no flicker. It lights up a whole room.

The Rayo is an economical lamp, too.

You get the most possible light-value for the oil burned; and the Rayo itself is a low-priced lamp. Yet it is a handsome lamp—an ornament to any room in the house.

The Rayo Lamp is easily lighted without removing shade or chimney; easy to clean and rewick. Made of solid brass, nickel-plated; also in numerous other styles and finishes.

Ask your dealer to show you his line of Rayo lamps; or write for descriptive circular to any agency of the Inviting Socialism.

When Trust magnates say that competition can not be restored between big corporations, they invite Socialism. If the doctrine thus contended for is ever accepted by the public, then the only remaining question will be whether the profits of the monopoly shall be enjoyed by a few favored individuals or by the public. The Democratic party is opposed to Socialism and it therefore stands for a restoration of competition. It may be difficult to "unscramble eggs," as Mr. Morgan the members of the Trust than to suggests, but it is better to separate

Uncle Sam Unprepared.

Secretary of War Stimson, in his annual report to the President, declares that war with a first-class Power would find the army of the United States practically unprepared. The Secretary is opposed to the scattering of the army over the country and emphasizes the lack of reserves.
